January 31, 2024

The Sacred Heart School of Montreal awarded Gold Prize as Best Private School

Montreal, January 31st, 2024 – Sacred Heart, Montreal's only English Catholic all-girls high school, has been awarded the Gold Prize as the Best Private School in Montreal. The recognition comes as a testament to the school's unwavering commitment to academic excellence, empowering female students, and fostering an environment that nurtures both personal and intellectual growth.

The prestigious award, presented by Best of Montreal, acknowledges Sacred Heart as a leader in providing exceptional education, contributing to the holistic development of its students, and maintaining high standards of educational practices.

For over 160 years, The Sacred Heart School of Montreal has been recognized for its dedication to fostering an atmosphere that encourages intellectual curiosity, critical thinking, and leadership skills. The school's commitment to empowering young women is reflected not only in academic achievements but also in the diverse range of extracurricular activities and community service initiatives that students actively engage in.

"We are incredibly honored and proud to receive the Gold Prize as the Best Private School," said Patricia Briand, Head of School. "This recognition is a testament to the hard work and dedication of our students, faculty, and staff. It reaffirms our commitment to providing a supportive and enriching educational environment for young women, where they can thrive academically and personally. Thank you to all who voted for us!"

The Gold Prize reflects Sacred Heart's ongoing efforts to innovate in education, adapt to changing needs, and prepare students for success in a rapidly evolving world. The school places a strong emphasis on promoting diversity, inclusion, and fostering a sense of community among its students.

For more information about The Sacred Heart School of Montreal and its programs, please visit sacredheart.qc.ca or contact (514) 937-2845.