

This Weekend in Boarding

Another bittersweet weekend in Boarding as we said farewell to another exchange student, Lily, who we wish all the best as she returns to her home in Austria!

Our weekend activity brought us to the Botanical Gardens to see the Gardens of Light display, which brought students through various folk tales and mythologies as they explored the Chinese, Japanese, and Indigenous gardens.

